SHALL COHASSET HAVE A LECTURE
COURSE?

Last year an article in the COT-TAGER with the above heading had the effect of bringing about a course of entertainment, which, we believe, were enjoyed by all who attended them.
We think there is no doubt that such another course is needed in Cohasset this winter, the only question is how shall it be brought about. There was very little criticism on the course provided last winter, but if anyone thinks that he or she can get up a better one, the field is open. Let him go ahead and try. There is no question that the entertainment will be patronized after the list is made up, but who will do the preliminary work. We offer as a suggestion, in case an effort is made to start a course, that those who intend taking tickets come forward at once and signify their intention, not compel the managers to run after them.

COHASSET MUSICAL ASSOCIATION.

Since publishing in our last issue, the article referring to the above association we have received numerous inquiries as to what constitutes an Associate Member. Although partly explained in that article we will give our readers a little clearer explanation.
Any person desiring to become an Associate Member of the Association has simply to make application to any active member or officer thereof. The name is then presented to the board of directors for their action and if accepted, a very neat certificate of Associate Membership is issued to the applicant. A yearly fee of $3.00 is charged and all money received is used for the purchase of music, instrument and for instruction for those members desiring it. Associate members are entitled to free admission to all concerts or rehearsals given by the association. As a list of the active members and instrumentation may prove of interest to our readers we give a complete list below.

ELECTION DAY IN COHASSET.

Last Tuesday morning dawned cool and clear and when the polls were opened it was confidently expected by all present at that a large vote would be polled in this town, but no one perhaps, thought that the largest vote ever cast would be the result. Promptly as the clock on the Old Church steeple struck eight, the first ballot, the straight Republican ticket, was dropped into the ballot box by Mr. Louis T.
Cushing. From this time until about ten o'clock the voting was very steady and at times quite brisk. At about 9:30 o'clock the No. 34 Scituate Brass Band appeared leading a procession of five wagon loads of voters from the Beachwood district, each one of which deposited the Republican ticket, while the band played a few selections in front of the hall.

During the latter part of the morning the voting was very slow and but very few people remained around the hall. Nothing of special importance occurred during the day and no disturbance of any kind was noticed. At 1 o'clock the polls were closed and at about 1:30 the result of the vote was declared, very few persons being in the hall at the time. Following are the full returns of the entire ticket for this town:

SCITUATE VOTE.

The much talked of election has passed and the winning side is jubilant as usual. The day was fine and beautiful, so that many of the aged got out as they otherwise would not have done had the weather been stormy.

There was not much excitement, most of the citizens stayed only long enough to vote and then went home.

The vote was as follows:

GOVERNOR, 1883.

Robinson, 242

Butler, 211

Almy, 12

GOVERNOR, 1882.

Butler, 108

cratic, 43; Prohibitory, 3.

small towns, was:

chise. All those persons interested in having good roads would do well to be present and see for themselves.

Flyers are out for an entertainment at Union hall, Saturday evening, Nov.
10, for the benefit of the Rural Improvement Society. It will consist of music by two gentlemen from abroad, who have volunteered their services; tableaux showing scenes from Cinderella. Refreshments of hot coffee, pie, cake, and hulled corn and milk. We hope all the Harbor people and all that can from the other parts of the town, will turn out and swell the treasury of this good enterprise. Admission, 10 cents.

The teachers' institute to be held at the Unitarian Church, Scituate, on Thursday, Nov. 22, should have the interest and support of all our town's people. Invitations have been extended to the school committees and the teachers of Marshfield, South Scituate and Cohasset. During the day matters relating to education will be discussed and will no doubt be most interesting and instructive. On Wednesday evening a lecture will be given by J. W. Dickinson, Sec'y State Board of Education, also singing by the High School under the direction of their teacher, Mr. Runyan. A collation will be served on Thursday to the invited guests, to which all are invited to contribute. Donations will be called for by the scholars of our different schools and it is hoped that the people will respond liberally. Our citizens are all cordially invited and urged to be present both to Mr. Dickinson's lecture on Wednesday evening and to the exercises the day following.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Isaac C. Nightingale died at his residence Saturday, very suddenly of Bright's disease. Since the injury he received from his horse last Spring he has failed in health. He drove upon his route the Saturday before and on the morning of his death stood in the door of his house. Mr. Nightingale was born in Quincy, married his wife in Marshfield, where he carried on business a few years, and came to Scituate about 20 years ago, where he has resided and been in the butchering business. He leaves a wife and five children, (Mrs. Alice Lewis of Rockland, Mrs. Mattie Litchfield of Weymouth, Mrs. Matilda Cushman of Scituate, Mrs. Addie Blanchard of Weymouth and Alfred Nightingale of Scituate) to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.
The funeral took place at his late residence, Tuesday, Rev. N. Seaver officiating.

Mr. Bailey Vinal died at his residence on Kent street, Monday at the advanced age of 88 years and 6 months. He was born in the house where he died and had always lived there. He leaves one sister, Eliza, 83 years of age, who is the last of the family to remain. Mr. Vinal had been a hard working farmer, and brought his property up to a good degree of cultivation.
The family, of which he was the second oldest, was very peculiar. Of the three sisters and three brothers, only one was ever married, and only one ever rode in a railroad car, several of them never having seen one. At the time of his death he was one of the oldest in town, if not the oldest.

The property which has been in the family many years, was granted by King George to some of the first settlers of Scituate from the county of Kent, and has been held intact ever since. The funeral took place Thursday at his late residence, Rev. W. H.
Fish of South Scituate officiating, assisted by Rev. N. Seaver, Jr.

Ball Orders neatly printed at this office. Call and see our samples.

In Weymouth, Oct. 28 to Mr. and Mrs.
William P. Litchfield, a daughter.

MARRIED.

In North Scituate, at the residence of J.
W. Bailey, Nov. 8, by Rev. T. W. Sheppard, Miss Elizabeth R. W. Fuller, to Mr. Charles P. Walsh, both of Scituate.

DIED.

In Scituate, Nov. 3, Isaac C. Nightingale, 71 years, 8 months.

In Scituate, Nov. 5, Bailey Vinal, 88
years, 6 months.

NORTH SCITUATE.

Mr. Henry Leavitt has recently moved into the old Gannett house.

The North Scituate Brass Band escorted the Republican voters of Beachwood to Cohasset Town Hall Tuesday.

Some work has been done in the cemetery during the past week, and more will be as soon as the farmers get through their fall busy.

FOUND—A dead horse under James S. Litchfield's barn. The owner can have the same by paying damages and removing the carcass at once.

The business of carting coal heretofore carried on by Mr. Caleb Osborne and "Old Drom" has been dissolved.
Mr. O's part has been unminuted out, and retired to the horse buryingground. He was faithful if not handsome, and is sincerely mourned.

Beautiful weather, moonlight evenings, and the perfume of the skunk is smelled in the land, when the small boy stirs him up. He seeks out his hiding place and ends his path, and there he settles his trap, yes he catches his pet, (and sometimes his essence) he removes his jacket, and sells it for six cents, and also gets two cents worth of grease and many scents worth of scent. No nonsense in that business.

At the Superior Court held at Plymouth, last week, Samuel C. Vinal of Scituate, charged with stealing the horse of George R. Vinal, having pleaded guilty, was heard through counsel, Hon. B. W. Harris, on the question of sentence, when it was brought out that the prisoner attempted suicide while confined in the lockup, and other acts tending toward insanity. He was sentenced to fourteen months in the house of correction at Dedham.

At the second meeting, Tuesday, which was called directly after the result of the voting was read, the following business was done: A. J. Waterman was chosen moderator. A committee of three were chosen, Henry Meritt, Thomas Tilden, Chas. H.
Mitchell, with the Selectmen, to consult with the County Commissioners, in reference to the road at North Scituate Beach, and to act in regard to the town's best interest. The road is the one petitioned for by Chas. H.
Mitchell and others, and which is in a bad condition.

Mr. Chas. P. Welch and Miss Lizzie R. W. Fuller, both of Scituate, were united in marriage at the residence of John W. Bailey, Esq., on Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, by Rev. T. W. Sheppard. About thirty relatives and friends witnessed the union and offered their congratulations.
The bride was the recipient of many handsome and costly presents.
After the ceremony the happy couple went to their home at the Harbor, which they had prepared for themselves, and where we hope they may live many happy years together.
